

Berkshire War Memorials

Bray Cemetery

The Cemetery is located on the south side of the A308 just east of the M4 overbridge. (SU904/784). It contains two graves from WW1 and two from WW2. Also a note on a family grave for a WW1 casualty.

A general view of the cemetery

The family grave of Charles Eggleton who died 22/11/1915

The grave of H C Cripps who died 13/9/1918

William Edward Basil Woodhouse who died 24th Feb 1917 is buried at Assevillers New British Cemetery on the Somme.

Henry Fisher died 31/7/1943

The grave of Gerard Hamilton Maffett who died 31/8/1940

